

WEDDING RECEPTIONS & SPECIAL OCCASIONS

Built in 1911, the historic Orpheum Theater has served as a beloved gathering place for generations—hosting celebrations, performances, and unforgettable moments for more than a century. Today, the venue continues that tradition, offering a distinctive setting where historic charm meets modern production capabilities.

The Orpheum provides a highly adaptable and welcoming space for wedding receptions, celebrations, corporate events, and private gatherings of all kinds. With flexible layouts, professional production support, and customizable options, our team is dedicated to helping you bring your vision to life—while keeping your event seamless, enjoyable, and within budget.
